TOBACCO SITUATION.

Farmers are not disposed to haul their tobacco town and give it away at the prevailing prices. The price will not aver age ten cents and if the farmer is forced to sell at that figure the loss will be ruinous to him Very little tobacco is being of fered and the most of it would be more profitable left on the farm as fertilizer. The offer ings are bad it is true, but the prices are not even as good as pre war prices. The warehouse men are asking the planters to hold the crop until after the holidays, when they confident ly expect better prices. Then too Congress is now assembling fresh from the people, and Con gress is certain to put a stop to the deflation of the currency and pass other remedial legis tion to stay the ruin which now threathens the agriculture of America. Give us the cheap dollar and plenty of credit to all entitled thereto, and on this basis industry will find and employ all the capital in exist ence. Let the Federal Board discount for its member banks at 4 per cent on U S. bonds and stop the Treasury from issuing high interest bearing certifi cates and sell bonds instead for it seems to the producer that war has just begun.

State Highway Located

News was received here Mon day from Commissioner Cole man that he had decided the route of the State Highway from Farmville to Appomattox along the railroad. This road is known as No. 10, and follows the railroad except an effort will be made to eliminate some of the crossings along the route. This will be good news to the people of Evergreen and Pamplin who were so much interested in the railroad route. Now if Mr. Coleman will hurry and get the work started we will render his department more praise.

Mapp to Oppose Tucker; Flood not a Candidate, Belief of Politicians

Harry St. George Tucker of Lexington and State Senator G. Walter Mapp of Accomac will be the opposing candidates for governor in the democratic primaries next August, accord ing to the best opinion here. Representative H. D. Flood of Appomattox, it is now expected will not be a candidate.

Neither Representative Flood nor Senator Mapp has made any formal statements, as yet, but those close to the former have declared recently that he has stated positively that he will not enter the race against Tucker and friends of the latter are authority for the statement that he will be in the field. It has been understood ever since Lieutenant Governor Buchanan decided not to enter the contest against Tucker that either Flood or Mapp would take his place in opposition and that only one of them would do so. It has been a question merely as to which would enter the list and it seems reasonably well settled now that the candi date will be the Accomac man.

Senator Mapp will count upon the support of the women of the state and upon those pro hibitionists who take the po sition that the prohibition question is not settled and will not be settled until the last vestige of opposition has been forever buried. He expects also to have the backing of the remnants of the old organi zation, including the friends of Representative Flood. It is not known that there has been any definite agreement between Flood and Mapp. On the con trary each has sought to secure the retirement of the other, but it has been understood that the one that concluded not to make the race would throw his strength to the other, affecting a nebulous combination against Tucker who is affiliated with neither of the other two politi cally.

With the virtual certainty that Representative Flood will not be a candidate for the dem ocratic nomination for gover nor there has come a revival of the discussion of the senatorial race in 1923, and it is believed that in case Senator Swanson should not be a candidate for re-election Representative Flood will enter the field. An nouncement from Governor Westmoreland Davis that he will seek the democratic nomi nation in the August 1923 pri maries is expected by his friends, regardless of whether his opponents will be Swanson or Flood.

There has been a great shift ing of politicial allegiances in Virginia since the death of Senator Martin, and the entry of the women as a live factor into politics adds to the un certainty. There has been a shifting of the leadership. Carter Glass is in the senate; Westmoreland Davis is gover nor and prospective candidate for the senate, and Harry St George Tucker is so far the only announced candidate who is actively campaigning to suc ceed Davis in the executive office

When Senator Martin died the recognized leader of the organization passed away. Since that time the organiza tion has been without a leader —Richmond Dispatch to Lynch burg News

With Mr. Flood out of the fight it will be an easy matter for the old friends of that dis tinguished champion of States rights—Mr. Tucker, to put him in the Virginia Whitehouse at Richmond.

Hollywood

The faculty of Hollywood school cordially invite the patrons and friends of the school to come and share all the pleasure that can be had at an oyster supper and dance on Friday evening, December 10, at 8 o'clock.

Mr. K. D. Beasley and daugh ter, Miss Clora Beasley with several friends motored down from Lynchburg and spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. H C Turnes.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Gordon and their two little sons spent the week-end with Mr and Mrs. H W. Ferguson.

Master Basil Ferguson, son of Mr. J S Ferguson is conva lescent from an attack of pneu monia.

Miss Mary Louise Bryant spent Thanksgiving with Miss Fanny Turnes, of Vera.

The Woman's Missionary Society and the Sunbeam Band of Hollywood Baptist church spent a very pleasant hour at their group meeting on Satur day, November 20, enjoying a very interesting talk by Mrs. C. B. Bowery, superintendent of Appomattox Baptist Mission ary Society.

Mr. Joel LeGrande, of Lynch burg, spent several days last week hunting in this neighbor hood with friends and relatives.

Buckingham

In the cold rainy inclement day Saturday people from far and near wended their way to the sale advertised to take place on the Fitzpatrick farm only to find that the most valu able things advertised for sale were either taken in by the family or not offered at auction at all. Mr. Lewis Williams acted as clerk of the sale and Mr. P. A Grigg was the auctioneer. A thing that shows how little people are planning to plant another crop was that at this sale a lot of some 200 yards of plant patch canvass sold for one dollar and five cents.

Mr. Robert Antrim has been spending several weeks in the south going as far as Florida and he reports the farmers being blue over the slump in prices of raw cotton.

On one of the near by farms two men were put to work shucking corn at a pay of 40 cents a barrel to shuck the corn and tie the feed up; and they only made about 75 cents each in a day.

Mr Lewis Glover had a sale of his personal property on the Well Water farm

Mr. Charles L. Glover has gone to West Virginia to stay with his son, Mr. Samuel Glov er.

Miss Roma Garnett spent Thanksgiving with her home people here.

Frank Cobb spent the week end at the home of Dr. P. E. Tucker here.

Mr. E. B. Glover contem plates engaging in busine s in West Virginia

Miss Eda Simms died in one of the Richmond hospitals last week.

I hear that Mr and Mrs E. W. Hubard will spend the win ter here at the home of Mr. Hubard's brother, but event ually Mr. Edmond Hubard ex pects to occupy "Saratoga" his old home place

The boards of the wealthy, the well to-do and even the poor had plenty of food on Thanksgiving.

The grand rally of the tobac co raisers is to be held here on January 1st, 1921, at which time they expect to organize in the hopes of securing better prices for their crops.

Mr. John W. Gantt, of South Carolina, is soon to visit his sister in this county.

A new hyoraulic ram is being installed to furnish water in the high school building here.

With two jobs being offered each man at prices ruinous for a farmer to pay when do you look for the prices of labor to drop.

Lugs selling for $2 50 and $3 per hundred and labor $2 o $3 per day and corn $5 a barrel.

Forest View

Thanksgiving was very quiet around here, as the hunting law has changed some, not many guns heard.

Some of the farmers are trying to get rid of a part of their tobacco, despite the low prices. Mr. Tom Elder has broken the record around here on bright tobacco.

News was received here from Richmond last week of the ex treme illness of Miss Pauline Marshall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Marshall. She had not been well for some time, and early in the spring went to Richmond where she has been under doctor's treatment, on Saturday night she had a very serious operation which has preved a success so far. We hope for her a speedy recovery. She is loved by all who know her

This whole vicinity is rejoic ed to hear that Mr. H C. Bab cock of your town is better.

Mr. N. D. Marshall is in Rich mond with his daughter.

Misses Mattie and Odelle Ferguson entertained a number of their friends on Saturday night November 20 with music & etc. Everybody reported a good time.

Mr. and Mrs Jim Reede have five children with whooping cough. The baby four months old has been very ill.

We are sorry to note Mr. Massie Nash is not so well at this writing He expects to go to Catawba this week.

Success to the Times-Virgin ian.

WORSE THAN LIGHTED CIGAR

Denverite, After Carefully Igniting it, Absentmindedly Put the Fire cracker in His Mouth.

As a result of absent-mindedness in his Fourth of July celebrating, Osip Salonski, 32, of West Denver lost sev eral teeth and is carrying his face in a sling.

Osip stood on the corner, smoking a cigaret and watching with interest the youngsters shoot off their explosives. Suddenly a desire to be young, real young, once more assailed him, and, stalking up to a near-by booth, he pur chased a whole fistful of firecrackers. Stepping to the edge of the curb, he cautiously applied the end of his lighted cigaret to the fuse of one of the crackers. A sputter and a volley of little sparks announced that the noise was on the way. Then Osip's mentality failed to function properly. With a quick movement he slammed his cig aret into the street and jammed the end of the firecracker into his mouth. A terrific crash, which disengaged three front teeth and bespeckled his face with powder burns, brought Osip to the conclusion that all was not just as it should be. He made a run for the nearest drug store, and he emerged a few moments later reeking with the fumes of iodine and his face and neck swathed in bandages, and he looked much like an accident that had gone somewhere to happen and, apparently, had been a success. —Denver Times.

No Kentucky Silver Mines.

The bureau of mines states that there are no silver mines in Kentucky. There is an old legend which prevails throughout the country regarding lost silver mines in that state, but there is no foundation for it.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was sup posed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional con ditions and therefore requires constitu tional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medi cine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars re ward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.
